Sources include, but are not limited to confirmed photographic submissions to inaturalist.org, the Virtual Museum, the SA Rare Bird News Report, photographic submissions by local and visiting birders, as well as a vast number of sightings by Prof Morné du Plessis during his visits to the area between 1986 and 1998.

Confirmed photographic sightings of vagrant birds, which are not known to occur in Southern Africa, have been omitted from the list. These were a Buff-breasted Sandpiper (11/04/2011 - Etienne Marais), a White Tern (26/12/2018 - Etienne Marais) a Pacific Golden Plover (15/02/2020 - Foden Saunders) and of course, the Sooty Gull which took up residence here from 01/01/2021 - 09/02/2021 (first seen by Michael Wood). All four were seen on the eastern bank of the Great Kei River.
